Accessibility

If you require assistance to lodge a complaint we are happy to work with an authorised representatives or advocate.

What we need from you

If you are lodging a written complaint please provide as much information as you can about your concern and provide copies of any documents or records (including account statements and any records of supporting correspondence that highlight what has gone wrong).

Our internal complaint process

- We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 24 hours or as soon as practicable;
- We may contact you by telephone or mail if we need further information or to understand your complaint in more detail.
- If we can't resolve your company within 5 days, your complaint will be allocated to a Customer Care officer and we will provide you with a written response within 30 calendar days (unless the matter is complex or there are circumstances beyond our control to provide a response within that timeframe).
- If we are unable to provide a written response within 30 calendar days we will write to let you know of the delay.

If you are not satisfied with our final response

If you are not satisfied with the outcome or the handling of your complaint, you may wish to contact an external dispute resolution scheme. Australian residents may wish to contact Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) and New Zealand residents may wish to contact Financial Services Complaints Limited (FSCL).
